

Frank Macchia

Saxolollapalooza

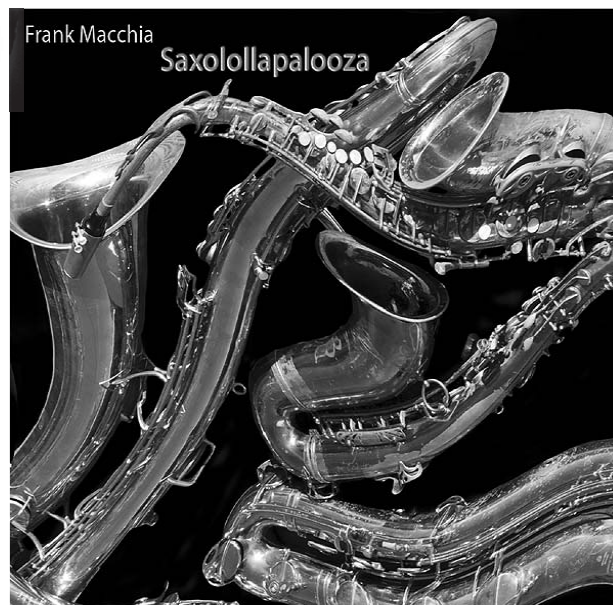

What do you get when you cross six of Los Angeles top jazz saxophonists, Weather Report's drummer and Grammy Nominee composer/arranger Frank Macchia? Saxolollapalooza, of course! Featuring Eric Marienthal, Bob Sheppard, Gene Cipriano, Sal Lozano, Jay Mason, Frank Macchia on saxes/woodwinds and Peter Erskine on drums, Saxolollapalooza is like a sax section on steroids! Playing innovative arrangements of songs spanning styles from New Orleans second line, samba, funk, swing and ballads, Saxolollapalooza never fails to entertain and bring back some good old fashioned fun!

Jazz Magazine states "an inventive composer and arranger who deserves comparisons to Gil Evans and Pat Metheny." Macchia, who produced the project, was nominated for a Grammy Award in 2007 for his arrangement of Black Is the Color of My True Love's Hair from his CD Emotions, featuring the Prague Orchestra.
