Frank Macchia

Folk Songs for Jazzers

featuring guest vocalists
Tierney Sutton & Ellis Hall

Frank Macchia and his 13 piece band of incredible Los Angeles jazzers deliver innovative versions of classic folk songs. Macchia, who has worked with Van Dyke Parks, Ella Fitzgerald, Brian Wilson, Clare Fisher, Jerry Lee Lewis, Yes, and the Tonight Show Band, has composed and orchestrated on numerous films and television shows, and was the recipient of a National Endowment Grant for Jazz Arts. Folk Songs for Jazzers features Frank's original arrangements as well as showcase the vocals of Tierney Sutton and Ellis Hall.

Jazziz Magazine states "an inventive composer and arranger who deserves comparisons to Gil Evans and Pat Metheny." Macchia, who arranged and produced the project, is featured on woodwinds, playing with such jazz greats as Wayne Bergeron, Peter Erskine, Ray Frisby, Grant Geissman, Trey Henry, Alex Iles, Sal Lozano, Valarie King, Jay Mason, Kevin Porter, Tom Ranier, Bill Reichenbach and Bob Sheppard.
