“FRANK MACCHIA’S GREASE MECHANIX IS FUN & FUNKY”

Three-time Grammy nominated composer/arranger/saxophonist Frank Macchia has a new jazz/funk CD out with a huge band that will bring a huge smile to your face!

Picture a triple sized New Orleans Brass Band: six saxophones, three trumpets, three trombones, tuba, electric guitar, drums and percussion playing all new original music that will have you shaking, rattling and rolling with modern rhythms and funky goodness. Add a touch of humor in the form of whacky lyrics delivered by Macchia and you have Grease Mechanix!

Macchia has worked with Van Dyke Parks, Ella Fitzgerald, Brian Wilson, Clare Fisher, Yes, and the Tonight Show Band; composed and orchestrated on numerous films and television shows. He was the recipient of a National Endowment Grant for Jazz Arts and was a Sundance Labs Composer Fellow in 2004. Grease Mechanix is comprised of a some of Los Angeles’ finest jazz musicians, including Peter Erskine, Eric Marienthal, Wayne Bergeron, Brandon Fields, Bob Sheppard, Bill Reichenbach, Walt Fowler, Alex Iles, Sal Lozano, Dan Fornero, Kevin Porter, Jay Mason, Craig Gosnell, Ken Rosser and Brad Dutz. They play with wild and inspired abandon!

Grease Mechanix is currently available at Amazon.com, iTunes, CDBaby.com and frankmacchia.net. Look for promo videos on YouTube as well. It retails for $13.98.
